ORACLE AMERICA, INC.,

No. C 10-03561 WHA

11

Plaintiff,

12

v.

13

GOOGLE INC.,

REQUEST FOR BRIEFING RE
MOTIONS IN LIMINE

14

Defendant.

15

16 A prior order required Google to withdraw its third and fifth motions in limine from the 17 pretrial conference calendar without prejudice to consideration after the opening statements
18 (Dkt. No. 1591). By FRIDAY, APRIL 29 AT NOON, Oracle will please respond to Google's
19 motions regarding the Lindholm email and regarding testimony suggesting violations of privacy
20 or antitrust laws. Google may reply by TUESDAY, MAY 3 AT NOON.

Also by FRIDAY AT NOON, Oracle shall file its full motion reflected in its fourth summary motion in limine to exclude evidence and argument that copying was required to use the Java language. In addition, Oracle may fully brief one additional summary motion in limine. Google shall respond by TUESDAY AT NOON.

On the same schedule, Google shall file its full motion reflected in its first summary motion in limine to preclude expert testimony that recites a preferred version of disputed facts.
Google may also fully brief one additional summary motion in limine. Oracle shall respond by TUESDAY AT NOON.

United States District Court
For the Northern District of California

1 The full briefs on the summary motions in limine shall not exceed TWELVE PAGES IN
2 TOTAL (both motions), with any new exhibits not to exceed TWENTY PAGES.

3 The Court has read all of the parties' summary motions in limine, and with the exception
4 of the foregoing (and the motion regarding the admissibility of the testimony of Jonathan
5 Schwartz regarding the existence of a legal claim by Sun, now resolved by stipulation), the 6 Court is inclined to deny all relief.

7 To be clear, this additional briefing is in addition to the briefing on Google's earlier
8 motions that the Court ordered withdrawn. All of the motions referenced above will likely be 9 decided on the papers.

10 Finally, the parties shall please bring an agreed-on one-page list of all testifying
11 witnesses for use in the jury questionnaire to the final pretrial conference as well as the one-
12 page statement of the case, the timeline, and all other items previously requested.
